FairExit
Challenge your severance offer.

YOUR SEVERANCE REPORT

Your offer, organized.

We read your letter and your contract, checked them against the rules, and checked the release you're being asked to sign. Use it to understand your offer and prepare. Only an attorney can tell you what applies to you.

DO-IT-YOURSELF · NOT LEGAL ADVICE · YOU'RE IN CONTROL

PREPARED FOR
Raymond Okafor-Lindqvist

ROLE
Senior Dispatch Coordinator · 11 yrs 7 mo

WHERE
Texas, United States

DATE
October 1, 2026

For information only — not legal advice · Yours to keep and use

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

What's in this report.

Read it top to bottom, or jump to the page you need.

1 Where you stand — pages 4–8
Your offer checked against the rules, and what lines up.

2 Why there's no minimum — pages 9–10
What you're owed comes from what was promised.

3 What's in your letter and contract — pages 11–15
Clause by clause, with sources.

4 Questions to prepare — pages 16–18
Calm questions for HR, and this week's steps.

5 Your next step — pages 19–20
The three paths, side by side.

6 Where every number comes from — page 21
Every number and rule, with its official source.

7 Talking to an attorney — page 22
How to hand this report over, and your report ID.

How to read the colours: they always mean the same thing.

Green · lines up | Red · doesn't line up | Yellow · ask about it | Gray · good to know

Dark blue · your key number

US law sets no minimum severance, so this report checks what your own documents promise and the rules that protect you when you sign a release. It doesn't promise an amount or tell you what to do.

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

The important stuff — please read.

Straight talk about what this pack is, what it isn't, and where the responsibility sits.

1 · This is a do-it-yourself report

This is designed for you to use on your own. It organizes your offer and prepares questions — it is not advice a attorney would give you after reviewing your full situation, and a attorney may see things very differently. Anything you choose to send or say, you're doing on your own initiative.

2 · Information, not legal advice

This pack gives you information to help you prepare. It does not make FairExit your attorney and does not create a attorney–client relationship. Nothing here is legal advice.

3 · We use AI — mistakes can happen

The explanations, notes, and draft questions are produced by software and AI from general rules and the details you gave us. AI can be wrong, details can be misread, and laws change. It is up to you to read everything carefully and confirm every fact is correct before you rely on it.

4 · No guarantee — and the decisions are yours

Any general information here can be wrong, and outcomes depend on your paperwork and your situation. FairExit accepts no responsibility for what you send, say, or decide based on this report — those choices are entirely yours. Deadlines to act can be short; confirm them with a attorney promptly.

5 · Only a attorney can give you the exact answer

We provide clarity in an organized way. Only a licensed employment attorney can confirm what you're truly owed, review your real contract, and advise you. If anything feels urgent or serious — especially before you sign anything — speak to a attorney. The first call is often free.

6 · Once a attorney takes your case, follow them

Everything here is general and organizational. If you retain a attorney, their advice supersedes anything in this report — follow your attorney, not this document. Do not rely on this report once you're working with a attorney.

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

1

Where you stand

Your offer, checked against the rules. What they offered, what the rules say, and what lines up and what doesn't. If you only read one section, read this one.

IN THIS SECTION

Your offer at a glance

Things they don't always tell you

Did they do it right?

Your release check

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

Your offer, at a glance.

The short version before the detail.

Brazos Valley offered you 11 weeks ($16,288) plus $1,200 for health coverage if you sign a release. That matches their severance policy. But you're 61 and part of a group layoff, so federal rules give you 45 days and a list of who was selected: you got 21 days and no list. Texas law also says your final pay is due by October 15, and your signed agreement promises your unused PTO (about $4,146). You don't have to sign in 21 days.

Employer	Brazos Valley Freight Systems
Service	11 yrs 7 mo
Age	61
Your pay	$77,000 / year
They offered	$16,288
Decide by	October 22

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

Things they don't always tell you.

Here's what the official rules say, so you can decide on your timeline, not theirs. Every point links to a government source.

WHAT PEOPLE OFTEN THINK	WHAT THE OFFICIAL RULES SAY
"I have 21 days to decide."	In a group layoff, someone 40 or older must get at least 45 days to consider a release of age claims, and 7 days to revoke after. Source: eeoc.gov · Q&A: Understanding waivers of discrimination claims in em…
"They don't have to tell me who else was laid off."	In a group layoff, the employer must give the job titles and ages of those selected and not selected. Source: eeoc.gov · Q&A: Understanding waivers of discrimination claims in em…
"My final paycheck comes on the next payday."	In Texas, an employee who is discharged must be paid in full by the sixth day after discharge. Source: statutes.capitol.texas.gov · Tex. Lab. Code §61.014
"The handbook says PTO isn't paid, so that's it."	In Texas, vacation pay owed under a written agreement counts as wages. Your signed agreement promises PTO payout. Source: statutes.capitol.texas.gov · Tex. Lab. Code §61.001(7)(B)
"If I challenge the release, I have to pay it back."	Under the age discrimination law, you're not required to return severance pay to challenge the waiver. Source: eeoc.gov · Q&A: Understanding waivers of discrimination claims in em…

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

Did they do it right?

Your letter, your contract and the rules, side by side. Green = it lines up. Red = it doesn't. Yellow = worth asking about.

1 LINE UP | 4 DON'T | 1 TO ASK ABOUT

WHAT WE CHECKED	YOUR LETTER SAYS	YOUR CONTRACT SAYS	THE RULES SAY	DOES IT LINE UP?
Severance amount	11 weeks: $16,288	Policy: 1 week per year, min 4	What the policy promises	Lines up 11 full years × 1 week. It matches.
Time to consider	21 days	Nothing	45 days in a group layoff (age 40+)	Doesn't line up Too short for a valid age release.
List of who was selected	Withheld as confidential	Nothing	Required in a group layoff	Doesn't line up Missing.
Final pay date	October 24	Nothing	By the 6th day after discharge: October 15	Doesn't line up Nine days late.
Unused PTO	Not paid (handbook)	"Will be paid upon separation" (s.3)	Vacation pay owed under a written agreement is wages	Doesn't line up About $4,146 is missing.
Layoff notice (WARN)	Released in the agreement	Nothing	Applies at 50+ laid off at one site	Good to know 38 at your site: likely doesn't apply.
Non-compete	24 months, 250 miles	Any capacity in freight or logistics	Must be reasonable; a court can narrow it	Ask about it Very broad. Ask an attorney.

Checked against Texas's rules and court decisions. Sources are on the Sources page.

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

Your release check.

US law sets no minimum severance, so the report checks the release you're being asked to sign against the rules that protect you.

YOUR KEY NUMBER

45 days

The time federal rules give you to consider a release in a group layoff when you are 40 or older.

- ✗ At least 45 days to consider (group layoff)
  You were given 21.
- ✗ Job titles and ages of those selected and not selected
  Withheld as confidential.
- ✓ 7 days to revoke after signing
  Included.
- ✓ Advised to consult an attorney
  "We encourage you to consult an attorney."
- ✓ Refers to the age discrimination law (ADEA)
  Named in section 3.
- ✓ Something beyond what you're owed
  The $1,200 and the severance are offered for the release.

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

2

Why there's no minimum

In the US, no law sets a minimum severance. Yours comes from your employer's policy, and the rules protect you when you sign a release.

IN THIS SECTION

Where your severance comes from

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

Where your severance comes from.

Three places, and which one applies to you.

1 · A written policy or agreement

If your employer has a written severance policy, plan or agreement, it decides what you're owed. Your offer: $16,288. Section 3 shows what your documents say.

2 · A law for certain layoffs

The federal WARN Act requires 60 days' notice, or pay instead, before a plant closing or mass layoff at employers with 100 or more workers. It only applies to larger layoffs; some states add their own rules.

3 · Money owed no matter what

Your final pay is owed whether or not you sign. In some states, unused vacation or PTO counts as wages too. Texas's rules are on the Sources page.

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

3

What's in your letter and contract

Clause by clause: what your documents say, what the rules say, and what it could mean for you. Each point shows where it comes from.

IN THIS SECTION

45 days and a list are required

Your final pay is due by October 15

Your unused PTO is owed

The non-compete

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

The terms to understand and the questions to ask.

For each: what your documents say, what the rules say, and what it means.

DOESN'T LINE UP

1. 45 days and a list are required

YOUR DOCUMENTS SAY

"You have twenty-one (21) days to consider this Agreement …" "The Company has not included a list of employees selected and not selected … because this information is confidential."

WHAT THE RULES SAY

In a group layoff, a valid release of age claims needs at least 45 days and the job titles and ages of everyone eligible or selected and not selected.

→ Ask for 45 days and the required list in writing.

Where this comes from: eeoc.gov · Q&A: Understanding waivers of discrimination claims in em…

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

DOESN'T LINE UP

2. Your final pay is due by October 15

YOUR DOCUMENTS SAY

"Your final paycheck … will be paid on the next regular payday, October 24, 2026."

WHAT THE RULES SAY

"An employer shall pay in full an employee who is discharged from employment not later than the sixth day after the date the employee is discharged."

→ Ask for your final pay by October 15.

Where this comes from: statutes.capitol.texas.gov · Tex. Lab. Code §61.014

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

DOESN'T LINE UP

3. Your unused PTO is owed

YOUR DOCUMENTS SAY

Letter: "Accrued PTO is not paid out at separation under Company policy." Your signed agreement s.3: "Accrued, unused PTO will be paid upon separation."

WHAT THE RULES SAY

"Wages" includes "vacation pay … owed to an employee under a written agreement with the employer".

→ Ask for your PTO to be paid with your final pay.

Where this comes from: statutes.capitol.texas.gov · Tex. Lab. Code §61.001(7)(B)

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

ASK ABOUT IT

4. The non-compete

YOUR DOCUMENTS SAY

24 months, within 250 miles of Houston, "in any capacity" in freight brokerage or logistics.

WHAT THE RULES SAY

Texas enforces a non-compete only to the extent its time, area and scope are reasonable; if they aren't, a court reforms it to what is reasonable.

→ Ask an attorney before turning down work.

Where this comes from: statutes.capitol.texas.gov · Tex. Bus. & Com. Code §15.50–15.51

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

4

Questions to prepare

Calm questions you can send to HR, and practical steps for this week. You decide what to use and when.

IN THIS SECTION

Questions you might choose to ask

Take your time, and keep it simple

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

Questions you might choose to ask.

Neutral questions you might choose to send. You decide what to send. This is not a demand letter or legal advice.

To: your HR contact (Charlene Dupree) · Subject: A few questions about my separation offer

Hi Charlene,

Thank you for the letter. Before I decide, I have a few questions.

Because I'm over 40 and this is part of a group reduction, I understand I should have 45 days to consider the agreement and a list of the job titles and ages of those selected and not selected. Could you provide that?

Could you confirm my final pay will be paid by October 15, and that my 112 hours of unused PTO will be included, as section 3 of my agreement provides?

Thank you,
Raymond

Why this works: it asks clear questions instead of making claims, and asks for time to understand the offer.

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

Take your time — and keep it simple.

Two things that help: not rushing, and keeping your questions clear.

You usually don't have to decide on the spot

Your letter gives a deadline to decide (October 22). Asking to take the offer home to review it is a normal, complete answer. You can ask for an extension in writing.

This week — the practical stuff

- Write down every date: last day Oct 9, final pay due Oct 15.
- File for unemployment with the Texas Workforce Commission.
- Gather documents: 2015 agreement, handbook section 6.4, PTO balance, the layoff memo.
- Check your final pay includes PTO.
- Keep this report to hand to an attorney if you choose.

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

5

Your next step

The three paths side by side, where every number in this report comes from, and how to hand it to a attorney if you want one.

IN THIS SECTION

You don't have to sign today

Where every number comes from

Talking to a attorney

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

You don't have to sign today.

Here's how the three paths compare.

OPTION 1

Sign as-is

Accept the offer and move on.

You get $16,288. It gives up the contract question.

OPTION 2

Ask your questions

Use Section 4 to raise it yourself.

You run it yourself, using Section 4.

OPTION 3

Talk to a attorney

They can tell you what applies to you.

First call often free. The contract question needs a attorney to read it.

Honest note: this report helps you ask the right questions. The contract question in Section 3 is one a attorney needs to read your contract to answer.

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

Where every number comes from.

Texas rules from official statute text and government guides (checked October 1, 2026).

IN YOUR REPORT	HOW WE GOT IT	SOURCE
Their offer $16,288	What your letter says	Your separation agreement
Time to consider	45 days in a group layoff (age 40+)	U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission · Q&A: Understanding waivers of discrimination claims in employee severance agreements www.eeoc.gov/laws/guidance/qa-understanding-waivers-discrimination-claims-employee-severance-agreements
List of who was selected	Required in a group layoff	U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission · Q&A: Understanding waivers of discrimination claims in employee severance agreements www.eeoc.gov/laws/guidance/qa-understanding-waivers-discrimination-claims-employee-severance-agreements
Final pay date	By the 6th day after discharge: October 15	Texas Labor Code · Tex. Lab. Code §61.014 statutes.capitol.texas.gov/Docs/LA/htm/LA.61.htm
Unused PTO	Vacation pay owed under a written agreement is wages	Texas Labor Code · Tex. Lab. Code §61.001(7)(B) statutes.capitol.texas.gov/Docs/LA/htm/LA.61.htm
Non-compete	Must be reasonable; a court can narrow it	Texas Business & Commerce Code · Tex. Bus. & Com. Code §15.50–15.51 statutes.capitol.texas.gov/Docs/BC/htm/BC.15.htm

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.

One step, and a attorney takes it from here.

If they push back, go quiet, or it feels like too much, you can hand this report to a attorney.

Show them this page.

Your report ID connects this report to FairExit, so they can see what you've already done. Connecting is free; you choose whether to go further.

Report ID FX-TEST-TX-0001

For information only, not legal advice, and not a attorney–client relationship. How we're paid: attorneys pay a flat advertising fee; never a cut of your outcome.

Built on the details you confirmed on October 1, 2026.
Rules as of October 1, 2026.
Report ID FX-TEST-TX-0001 · generated October 1, 2026

General information, not legal advice. We've done our best to make this clear and accurate, but please check the details before you act. If anything feels unclear, a professional can help.